

Pappas Telecasting is giving away air time to one political party in some California stations. This is an abuse of their license to use the public airwaves.